Situation in India

I very much regret that we have been unable to solve the problems that have arisen since the Indian Government altered its recruiting regulations, and we have therefore been forced to cease our business in India. This is a huge disappointment, as we had been very proud of what our Indian crew have achieved. NCL has requested us to hand over responsibility for our Indian crew to their agent for other Indian crew, Kamaxi, so when you return to India at end of contract, you will need to report to them for future processing.

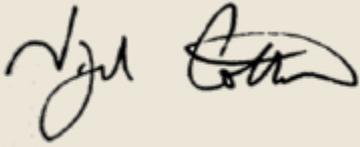

I wish to thank all of our Indian crew for their contribution to our work and for their hard work and dedication to duty on board NCL's ships.

I also wish to thank Ms D. Chauhan, our Indian recruiter, for her very successful work with us over the last five years. We very much regret that we have had to cease working together, and we wish her every success in future.

Thank you

I send my personal greetings to you and my thanks for all you have achieved this year.
